Cambridge Centre Contest Wins for Community!
December 21, 2009

Cambridge, ON – Cambridge Centre is pleased to congratulate the winner of our 2009 Cambridge Centre Shop Like Santa contest, Rosemarie Harvey of Cambridge, Ontario.
Ms. Harvey is the lucky recipient of $2000 to go towards all her holiday purchases!

This contest stemmed from our desire to provide something fun and exciting knowing our community has been hard-hit by the economic recession. It also provided a way for our community to win through a bounce-back donation to the local branch of The Salvation Army. For each unique entry, Cambridge Centre pledged to donate $1 to The Salvation Army and $1000 was donated because of the enthusiastic holiday spirit of Cambridge Centre shoppers!

More great news can be found from the contest results, which included a poll during its duration from November 11th until December 15th. We asked contestants, “How much do you plan to spend on holiday shopping?” Cambridge Centre shoppers have spoken and 46% informed they would be spending the same as last year. This is incredibly wonderful news and it bodes well for Cambridge as they move out of economic difficulty and into 2010.

Cambridge Centre thanks each participating shopper for helping them give back this holiday season, and wishes to extend warmest holiday greetings to each member of the Cambridge community.
